We expect all alumni to abide by the Governor's School Honor Code while on campus. Please respect our current students' privacy by not entering dorms.

This special day is hosted by Governor's School West and sponsored by the Governor's School Alumni Association. It allows students and alumni of all ages to continue the chase of intriguing ideas. The Alumni Association and its fundraising partner, the Governor's School Foundation, need your support to sustain the Governor's School on both campuses. To find out more about both the Alumni Association and the Foundation, visit the GSAA website at www.ncgsalumni.org and the GSF website at www.ncgsfoundation.org.

Special thanks for this day go to the GSW director, faculty, and staff, to the GSAA President Chuck Hensey and to the GSF President Lee Connor.

*We have scheduled this reception so that you can talk with former teachers outside of their classes.

†A refectory lunch costs $7.00+tax for alumni, cash or cards accepted. After you pay the host or hostess, please serve yourselves.

Optional Seminars

1:00 pm-4:15 pm

Letter Writing Campaigns

GSW Alumni Letter Writing Campaign

Help us get the word out! Writing letters to state newspapers and state legislators to help share why the Governor's School has been important to you can help support GS by sparking interest in future students, and we also hope that letters or emails written by alumni will attract support from our North Carolina community. A list of local North Carolina papers can be found on the North Carolina Press Association website at www.ncpress.com, and a list of state senators and representatives is available at www.ncga.state.nc.us.

NC Unity Project

The brainchild of two 2016 GSW students encouraging unity in response to recent national events, this campaign will encourage letter writers to brainstorm ideas and ways to reach out to legislators. Write a letter to your representative or take a photo with a sign stating what you believe "Together we can" do! Meet at the fishpond to take part.

Merchandise Sales

9:00 am-10:00 am and 3:00 pm-5:00 pm

Support Governor's School with the purchase of our merchandise! Sport GSW t-shirts, water bottles, stickers, mugs, and more to show support for the Governor's School in your community. Gifts will be available for purchase during morning registration in the FAC and at the Governor's School office throughout the afternoon.

1:00

Entrepreneurship: Is it for You?

Randall Hayes, NS (O220)

Randall Hayes of Agnosia Media LLC will describe his ongoing efforts to disrupt the textbook industry. Comedy ensues.

1:30

So, You Want to be a TAC...

Rodney Allen, Director (Shirley)

TACs are obviously pretty cool people, but they also play a vital role here at GSW. If you are interested in returning to GSW as a TAC, come get all the details at this event!

2:00-3:00

The Perception of Time in Music,

Orlando Cela, IM (Hanes)

Discover the sonic elements that warp our perception of time. Learn how composers use these to suspend audiences or to advance in time. Experience works that will exemplify these elements, plus, play in one, if you so desire—any instrument welcome!

The Hero's Journey,

Kari Strickland, Area III (S102)

What do Frodo Baggins, Harry Potter, and Katniss Everdeen have in common? How do their journeys relate to yours?

Counting to Infinity,

Matt Evans, Math (S301)

How big is infinity? Come find out.

3:15-4:15

Colonial Legacies and the Need for Decolonization,

David Farrow, TAC, Zach Ward, SS (S102)

Despite the seeming end of the Euro-American colonization, the socio-cultural remnants of colonialism continue to haunt the inhabitants of the modern world. This seminar will discuss colonialism as a historical process, present contemporary theoretical work on the problems of modernity/coloniality, and survey contemporary social movements. Area focuses include South Africa and Latin America.

Contemporary Film Series: Primer,

Trev Wignall, TAC, Carrie Hart, Area II (Hanes)

Two engineering entrepreneurs accidentally discover how to travel backwards in time. They attempt to use it responsibly, but the desire for personal gain may cost their friendship.

Additional Activities:

2:00-4:30: Tye Dye, Erin McKenney (Athletic Fields)

Prepare to create bright, kaleidoscopic colors and designs. No experience necessary! Dying materials supplied; t-shirts available while supplies last, or bring your own white cotton fabric. The cost will be $3 to dye your own cloth (100% cotton works best!) and $7 to purchase a t-shirt and dye it.

2:30-3:30: Par-tic-i-pate: Art Opening (FAC Galleries)

1. take part
2. archaic – to have or possess (a particular quality)
